RCCA Policy for hosting licenced events at Roberts Creek Community Hall

- 1 The Roberts Creek Community Association (RCCA) is a non-profit organisation registered in BC under the Society Act.
- 2 The RCCA owns & manages the Roberts Creek Community Hall at 1309 Roberts Creek Rd
- 3 The RCCA does not hold a liquor primary licence and has no plans to obtain one.
- 4 When the RC Hall is rented to individuals or organisations (such as promoters or non-profit organisations) it is the sole responsibility of the renter to obtain a liquor licence and event insurance coverage and to manage the event according to the liquor licencing regulations. The RCCA requires the renter to enter into a rental contract which includes an indemnity clause covering the RCCA.
- 5 The RCCA occasionally hosts licenced public events at the Hall and on these occasions a member of the RCCA board will apply for a special occasion licence and will be responsible for liquor sales and licencing issues. All profits from these events must go directly to the RCCA.
- 6 The RCCA may occasionally hire an event organiser to manage special public events on its behalf, but they will not be responsible for liquor licencing arrangements unless they are a member of the RCCA and have been delegated to this task by written approval from the RCCA Board.
- 7 The RCCA does not take on the role of non-profit sponsor for other organisations or promoters.
